

6. The most popular form of atheism is _____. This view holds that

a. What are some difficulties with this view?

7. Given atheism, we are all just _____. In the animal kingdom there is no moral _____ from one animal to the other.

a. Example

b. One can always ask, “_____?”

8. Moral _____ asserts that moral values and duties simply _____ without a _____.

a. What are some difficulties with this view?

9. _____ is the view that man is the _____ of all things. Whatever contributes to _____ is good. This makes _____ the _____ of moral values. Moral _____ are determined by contributes to _____.

a. What are some difficulties with this view?

10. We can point to our moral _____ to show that _____ moral values and duties do exist, much like we believe what our _____ tell us about the _____ world.
11. Some people may claim that due to biological _____ and social _____, our moral experience may not be _____.
- a. What are some difficulties with this claim?
12. The moral argument is a good complement to the cosmological argument because _____
13. How would you respond to these common objections
- a. People are good without God everyday!
 - b. Euthyphro Dilemma
 - i. Is something good because God wills it? Then the good is arbitrary. Does God will something because it is good? Then moral values exist independent from God?
 - c. I believe everyone has their own morality. No one has the right to impose their views on others.